A true comic classic - slapstick, cowardice, romance, all with the whiff of revolution in the air - it's Bridget Jones meets Doctor Zhivago it's

MARRIAGE

Come in your best hat and remind yourself why being single may not be so ghastly after all...

St Petersburg. The fag-end of the Romanov regime.
The bachelors of the city are literally falling over themselves for the hand of one Agafya Tikhonovna, an eligible heiress.

But how can she decide on a husband? She's not short of advice, but does anyone really have her best interests at heart? Certainly not her machiavellian "cousin" Kochkaryov, only too keen to inflict his utterly useless friend Podkolyosin on her. Prepare for laughs, surprises and dangerous acrobatics on the rocky road to wedded bliss...

Welcome to the crazy world of Nikolai Gogol, Russia's very own Jane Austen, but with a silly moustache.
